

Multi-Tech has developed excellent relations, based on performance and trust in the top corporate sectors in the kingdom, including all major Telecom operators, Vendors, Ministries, and Services organizations as well as the Industrial sector.

Multi-Tech has a network of individuals with advanced skills in modern computing technology and business process evaluation. We combine leading edge knowledge of information systems software and hardware with specialized industry expertise to ensure practical, comprehensive solutions to your business needs. Our backgrounds and abilities provide our clients with the resources needed to effectively generate profitable business solutions.

We offer a wide and multifaceted range of solutions and services to our customers, mainly, in the fields of Telecom and IT. Multi-Tech offers customers a true turnkey delivery and comprehensive, end-to-end solutions and services including site surveys, site acquisition, network planning and design, Network optimization, operation and on-going maintenance using the latest communication technologies as per end users needs; in addition to Telecom management consultancy. Multi-tech operation portfolio can be classified into the following:

Telecom Services Operation, IT Products and Service, and Professional Services